Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133).
- Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 15 April 2003.
- 2a) ☐ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☒ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

Disposition of Claims

- 4) ☒ Claim(s) 45-51 is/are pending in the application.

DETAILED ACTION

Discussion

This applicant incorrectly claims continuation in part (CIP) to 08/920,630 filed 08/27/97. It is noted the 08/920,630 went abandoned on 04/18/2001 which is prior to filing date of 08/25/1998 for the current application.

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election of Group I and Species IX in Paper No. 18 is acknowledged. Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

The following claims are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 46, the term "composite" is ambiguous. In the art, "composite" is usually a material limitation. Please direct to the specification for support and definition.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Art Unit: 3738

Claim 48 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, because the specification, while being enabling for the species shown in figure 8A having two pieces juxtaposition to one another, does not reasonably provide enablement for the elected species shown in figure 12A. The specification does not enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make the invention commensurate in scope with these claims.

Same for claim 47 claiming "two stacked pieces" which is not taught for the elected embodiment.

Drawings

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a) because they fail to show claims 47-48 wherein the elected species is comprised of two stacked pieces or two pieces juxtaposition to one another as claimed. Any structural detail that is essential for a proper understanding of the disclosed invention should be shown in the drawing. MPEP § 608.02(d). A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

Art Unit: 3738

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

All claims are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over all claims of copending Application No. 09/701,933. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because they are generic to all species. It is noted that applicant is claiming this is a continuation of 09/701,933.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 45-61 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Paul et al (6,258,125).

Paul et al teach a polygonal cortical spinal spacer. See all embodiments.

Note the stackable configuration shown in figure 7. Note figure 8 showing pieces in juxtaposition.

Claims 45-51 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Pafford et al (6,371,988).

Pafford et al teach numerous embodiments of polygonal cortical spinal spacer. Note figures 29-42 teaching a similar embodiment to applicant's figure 1 which is fully capable of being stacked or placed juxtaposition (also see figure 24 for juxtaposition). Note figures 39 and 40 teaching migration resistant projections.

Regarding claim 50, the Examiner interprets figures 29-42 being "substantially diamond shaped".

Claims 45-46, 48-49 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Bianchi et al (6,033,438).

Bianchi et al teach a polygonal cortical spinal spacer comprising two piece capable of being placed juxtaposition. See figure 9.

Claims 45-51 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by McIntyre (4,950,296).

Art Unit: 3738

McIntyre teaches a substantially diamond-like polygonal cortical spinal spacer. Multiple spacers can be used together to support the vertebrae which would be juxtaposition or fully capable of being stacked.
